

List of Records

The State's Attorneys office maintains files for the cases they prosecute. As a result the office has copies of most court filings in those cases. In addition, some copies of some County Board documents are kept, such as ordinances,etc.